

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE PROJECT

Community and inclusion: plural women

Generative territorial paths between food, interculture and rights for Italian and migrant women

The project, to which the city of Orbassano has joined on the proposal of the International Lay Volunteers Association (LVIA) and funded within the Inclusive Territories call of the Compagnia di San Paolo Foundation, in collaboration with the Cassa di Risparmio di Cuneo Foundation and the De Mari Foundation, is aimed at women Italian adults and migrants of working age interested in work-oriented paths, cultural exchanges and meetings with other women to share different knowledge and different cultures, mainly through food.

In particular, the following activities are indicatively expected to take place starting from September-October 2021 until December 2022:

culinary and cultural workshops and events, language courses, visits to museums, individual psycho-social, legal and trade union support paths, seminars on rights, sports activities, food processing training, HACCP and occupational safety, career guidance, meetings with entrepreneurial realities of the territory, participation in work placements.

You can express your interest in participating in the project, reserved for residents or domiciled in the City of Orbassano, by filling out the form attached below, deciding your commitment according to your needs and preferences as the activities are proposed.

Applications must be sent to the City of Orbassano – protocollo@comune.orbassano.to.it / pec: protocollo@pec.comune.orbassano.to.it or delivered by hand to the Sportello per il Cittadino, via Battisti, 4 de preferably by 10 November 2021; after this date other applications may be accepted if there are still places available.
